

Jonah for Small Groups (Query the Text Series)

Asking good questions is the key to understanding. The Query the Text Series gives you the ability to teach through whole books of the Bible in the natural rhythm of question and answer. Each lesson is designed to be highly interactive and to fit within a thirty to forty-five minute window of time. In publishing this material, I hope to give teachers an inexpensive option for adult Sunday School curriculum that both increases the interaction level of their small groups and keeps its focus on biblical exposition. Look for other Old and New Testament books to be released soon in the Query the Text Series.
