

Radiant Light - Boundless Love

Radiant Light Boundless Love challenges what it calls The Great Heresy of Christianity - that it has not shown us the way to find God within us, the way which Christ taught. It blazes the way, proclaiming a revolution in Christianity which must come, because so many have experienced God directly. Dennis Shipman was raised a Catholic. He attended Catholic elementary and high schools, volunteering as an altar boy. Within the environment of prayer and service to God, he began an earnest search for God. Five years after high school graduation, he experienced a profound mystical experience one could describe as Oneness with God. A radiant white light and boundless unconditional love consumed his entire being, and he discovered that God and Heaven existed within him. The experience totally transformed his thinking and consciousness about the Catholic religion and Christianity, the nature of God and Jesus, and the purpose of life on Earth. Dennis shares keys that have aided him in his quest for ultimate Unity in his Inner Light Training Program How to meditate in harmony with Christ's true intent. How to cultivate the Presence of God. How to overcome fears and separatism. In truth, this book is a complete manual for returning home to Light and Love (God). Reading it, you will feel the power of the Ultimate Experience we all can attain, and experience what it is like to be rhapsodically in love with God. AUTHOR BIO: Dennis holds graduate degrees in metaphysics and journalism. He has taught meditation classes, and worked in public relations.

During the Vietnam-era, he was stationed in Seoul, Korea and Nuremberg, Germany. He also worked in surfboard and catamaran manufacturing. He produced and hosted a grassroots political radio talk-show in Honolulu. He also founded a wood recycling company in Long Beach Harbor and a codependent recovery group. He was executive director for the Gandhi International Memorial Foundation. Born in Nebraska, he grew up in Orange County, California. After living in Southern California for 35 years, he moved to Honolulu, where he has lived for over 11 years. He is currently the editor in chief of a new spiritual publication about the great shift in consciousness for the new millennium.
