

Heavens Homecoming

In Heavens Homecoming Father McKay has compiled eulogistic stories of the elderly under his 18 year priestly watch at Holy Family Home, in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Through the spirit of Saint Jeanne Jugan and her Little Sisters of the Poor, these humble professors of the faith will make you laugh and cry as you read the testimonies of their sun-setting lives. Nearer to God, they will teach you that growing old isn't a curse, but a blessing, indeed. Although the names have been changed to respect their privacy, each personal story reflects authenticity. Filled with wisdom, the accounts of their final moments on earth proclaim, most especially, the Lord's command: Be not afraid. The Archbishop of New York, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, has written the Foreword for this book. He writes, Heavens Homecoming celebrates the profound silence of indescribable joy in the presence of God who calls us home to Himself. Since this is our goal, let's go on for God... Proceeds from the sale of this book benefits the Little Sisters with a small percentage going to The Calix Society where Fr. McKay serves as a spiritual director.
