

Thomas Mertons Path to the Palace of Nowhere: The Essential Guide to the Contemplative Teachings of Thomas Merton

Thomas Merton -- Trappist monk, author, and student of Zen -- remains one of the most important and beloved figures in the modern Christian contemplative movement. His writings, which bridge Eastern and Western spiritual thought, continue to inspire us with their real possibilities for immediate and direct experience of the divine. Now James Finley, who for six years lived, prayed, and studied with Brother Louis, as Merton was known at the Abbey of Gethsemani, shares with us the gifts passed on to him by this towering figure. Discover the Contemplative Dimension of Daily Life We can choose to open ourselves to contemplative experience at any moment, Merton taught. Through spontaneous moments of awakening that happen continuously in daily life, we can take the first steps on this self-transforming path to union with the divine. Using the trustworthy spiritual landmarks described by Merton himself, Finley guides us beyond our preconceived ideas in order to discover the infinite love that life itself manifests. First presented at a series of popular retreats, this full six-cassette program takes a participatory approach to Merton's most useful teachings, helping us to discover our true self -- ... to disappear into God, to be submerged into his peace, to be lost in the secret of his face, as Merton said -- through daily practices including contemplation, prayer, and faith. In the end we find ourselves in what the Taoist sage Chaung Tzu called, ... the Palace of Nowhere, where all the many things are one.

There is an Eastern teaching called transmission of mind, in which the enlightened mind embodied in the master is manifest in the students awakening. It is in this spirit that James Finley invites us to follow THOMAS MERTONS PATH TO THE PALACE OF NOWHERE.
